Discovering Jesus in His Jewish Context

10-day course 23.4-4.5.2018 for local participants

We are pleased to announce that this April/May, we will be hosting a series of lectures and excursions as part of our Discovering Jesus in His Jewish Context course.

When God chose to become one of us, he did so in the specific cultural, social, economic, and political context of first-century Israel. Jesus was Jewish and preached almost exclusively to other Jews. Yet his message spread throughout the ancient world, and continues to do so today. Understanding Jesus' first-century Jewish context is essential for understanding and applying theology, here and now.

How did the Jewish Jesus of the first century become a light for all nations? We will explore this through lectures, meetings with local scholars and Christian/Messianic leaders, and daily field trips in and around Jerusalem. This English-language 10-day course is open to pastors, theologians, and other interested Christians from all over the world. During the course, participants will also become acquainted with the challenges of presenting the gospel in modern-day Israel.

Though course participation is primarily composed of pastors and ministry workers from abroad, local participants are very welcome. We encourage local people to sign up for the entire course. If, however, you are unable to attend all 10 days, it is also possible to sign up for individual sessions. Most of the sessions will be taught at the Caspari Center, at HaNevi'im 55 in Jerusalem.

The themes covered will include:

- The Jerusalem that Jesus knew
- Jesus' Galilee
- Qumran: A different Judaism
- New Testament authors as contextual theologians
- Jewish believers in the first centuries
- Covenant Theology
- Messianic Judaism as a contextual expression of faith in Jesus
- The ongoing challenge of reconciliation

Cost of the course

Prices for local participants (people residing in the country for at least 6 months) are subsidized.

The course is made up of several lectures and excursions (including a trip to Qumran and Jericho and a 2-day trip to Galilee).

Participation options for local participants:
